

SONGSTERS OF FIVE CORPS

Units for Festival at West Toronto Divisional Commander Presides

One of the chief difficulties in connection with the arranging of a united Songster Brigade Festival in Toronto is that of securing a large enough and comfortable seat for the Songsters. This was strikingly demonstrated on Thursday night, January 20th, at West Toronto Corps, where the fourth of the series of festivals was held. Lieutenant Colonel Chandler presided, and the Hall was filled.

The enlarged platform, holding the five Brigades which took part, had the appearance of a solid block of blue, relieved only here and there by the red or yellow trimmings of a Bandmaster's tunic. It was a tight fit for the Brigades, but they did their best to minimize this handicap—and succeeded.

Toronto I. opened the programme with "Soldiers Marching," and later sang "Wonderful Stories of Jesus" under the leadership of Brother Goodall. The words were clearly heard; tuning was good, but a little more attention to light and shade would have added to the effectiveness of the renderings. The West Toronto Male Choir sang "Would you know why I love Jesus?" The men did well, but we have heard them sing much better. Their excellent vocal qualities seem to be more suited to solid, sustained singing, for which they have made themselves a name. Riverdale (Leader Farmer) gave two very good numbers, and even if the renderings lacked precision and assurance, its warmth of tone and sympathy with the words being sung made one feel that if service is the true object of Songster Brigades, then Riverdale must have had considerable success.

Two items by the united Brigades were given under the baton of Songster Leader Harry Bonifant of West Toronto. "Stand up and bless the Lord" is peculiarly adapted to such singing, and the Brigades gave much better attack and release than would have been secured had the conductor been able to have a full view of the singers. The second unified selection was "I thirst, Thou wounded Lamb of God," to the tune of "Acceperunt." And didn't they drown words, linked to that sublime old tune.

The Temple Brigade (Leader Turpin) sang "Break forth into joy and 'Mighty to Save.' The opening was well done. It was a delight to observe how the Brigade members watched their leader—in the first selection. In the latter, however, they fell from grace, and audibly anticipated their conductor. Another good point about this Brigade—the members listened for each other, and built up the selection accordingly. The soprano soloist sang with much acceptance, and conception of her theme. After Sister Mrs. Richards had recited, Dovercourt came on with the Call Divine. An excellent legato opening was followed by a fine crescendo, in which the male voices were conspicuous—and good. A slip in the second section of the piece was redeemed by their good work all the way through. The Brigade's second item, "Come, unto Me," was the masterpiece of the evening. Care and roundness of voice, with splendid shading and delicacy of treatment, made the Brigade's efforts something of a triumph. Leader Whitehouse has gained almost perfect control of his Brigade.

Bandsmen and Songsters.

Brother Keen of the Temple having played a mandolin solo, accompanied on the piano by Adjutant Green, the Lisgar Street Songsters (Leader J. Hargraves) contributed "Onward and Upward" and an arrangement of "Hark, hark, my soul." On the whole, the Brigade sang very well, and with good volume. At times the male voices were a little harsh and strident, and over-litane the female voices; and in the second selection, there was some misreading; but considering the rather difficult nature of the piece, the Brigade gave a fair account of itself.

Adjutant Green gave a pianoforte solo during the evening, and Sister Mrs. Bonifant sang "The Children's Home."

The next festival is to take place at Riverdale, on February 19th.

Rhodes Avenue (Toronto) Band, which at present numbers nine players, was met by Captain and Mrs. Wilson, the Corps Officers, for a spiritual meeting on Monday, January 26th. In addition to the Captain, Corps Treasurer Travis, Bandmaster W. Jolly, and Band Secretary Fisher also spoke, and their addresses, following a tea, were very helpful.

The Band, which, by the way, received good support during its first receding effort, is now able to hold its own open-air meeting on Sunday afternoons, and at night. Bandmaster Jolly, who has been acting leader for a time, but is now commissioned as Bandmaster, has a good hold upon his men: they will yet become widely known.

Ensign Thompson writes: "The Hamilton 11th Band and Songsters worked very hard during the Christmas serenading season, and so untidily and happily that it was a pleasure to see them or be with them. This is not the best district for serenading, but as a result of keeping at it, and seizing the opportunity, the Band and Brigade were rewarded with over four hundred dollars towards instruments, music, portable organ, Corps, etc."

It is also interesting to learn from the Ensign's letter that the Bandmaster, Brother Collins, was saved at the Corps just over three years ago, while he was under the influence of liquor, against which "The War Cry" made a strong protest by means of its "Anti-Drink" number. He had (says the Ensign) attended the Corps several times, at spots of drinking, and subsequently got converted and delivered from his old habit. He has now been Bandmaster of the Band for about two years and nine months.

"My! what a long programme!" This is very frequently the remark passed about Band and other programmes. It has also attached itself to the programmes arranged for the united Songster Brigade festivals in Toronto, and the need of some reform has been evidenced right from the commencement of the series.

"Well, what can you do?" says a Songster Leader. "Here you've got five or six Brigades coming to your Corps, and one must give them a good show." Very true, dear comrades, but is there not some way of avoiding the scamping, and even omission, of items towards the close of the programme, when the hands of the clock approach and even as they have done, past ten o'clock?

Would those Brigades who have ten miles by street car—to travel after the meeting, really object if their names appeared only once on the programme? It would not be judged unfair to the people who gather to hear the various Brigades; in fact, a Brigade, knowing that it appeared only once on the programme, and that its reputation depended upon that number would, perhaps, find this intensive study of the piece to be singing, with benefit to the Brigade itself and those who listen.

If long programmes are the inevitable—we do not see why they should hold upon his men: they will yet become widely known.

other long-festivals series of Songster Brigades on the platform of the Brigades. If at any time, it is a pleasure for each Songster, and on which the might conveniently be

On Monday, January 20th, occasion of the farewell of officers, Montreal IV. Band and musical festival. The Corps comrades from other Corps, Diggs, from the Metropole, and the Band were "Men of the March."

An instrumental quartet, "Evening Prayer" was heard, by Handmen Butlin, men Wilby Bowden and R. J. Hand, gave a cornet duo, promoted from first to solo. A vocal solo by the choral solo by Master John Robb, program and recitations completed a portion of the programme. The program chairman closed by an appeal to the uninvited.

The Kingston Band and have been stirred by two recent meetings which were recently dictated by Captain Smith, the spiritual meeting began in the way, the Captain reading the letters and the Bandmen giving testimonies. At ten o'clock, the meeting was sung to the meeting. But it was not so. The Bandmen sang and broke out into song; some upon their knees, others on company was working playing singing, so mightily did the God come upon the meeting. At 12:15 midnight before the Band started for their homes.

At the following Soldiers' the power of God was again, fested, and the comrades were singing, singing, and making fresh resolutions until midnight.

On a recent Thursday night Band gave a musical program, the close two souls came. On Saturday night two more forward: Sunday morning two, then in the afternoon, and fifteen. Fourteen Juniors at the Mercy Seat, making of forty-seven surrenders for week-end.

The revival spirit has taken of the whole Corps. From the of the Sunday afternoon on at 2:15 night eleven o'clock night, we had one continuing, as instead of going home supper, a number of the Band and Soldiers, with Captain St. Mary, to whose work the Band owes its present efficiency.

The Toronto Temple Songster recently met in the Council for a New Year's tea and evening, under the presidency of Staff-Captain Hayes. Songster or Turpin was responsible for arrangements, which were at the happiest order. About sixty comrades were present. The Brigade progress has been very gratifying to the Corps, and to the Songster Leader, to whose work the Brigade owes its present efficiency.

14-1914

REPRESENTING the Men's Social, the Property, and Immigration Departments. Lieutenant Colonel Rees and Turner presented a tour of North-West and Pacific Provinces. They started together, and worked together, and were together much of the time of their absence from Toronto. Perhaps it was fortunate for the Men's Social Service at all events—that they were willing companions, for he did "all" business while in the West; and it will be seen that a very important one are the Men's Social Department dependent upon the Property Department's co-operation.

Arriving in Vancouver on January 1st, Colonel Rees at once conferred with Captain Marshall, who has charge of the Men's Social Work in that city, as to the opening of the new Metropole and Salvage Department at Lansdowne Avenue. This took place on Thursday, and scenes of enthusiasm and rejoicing.

Brigadier Green presided at the ceremony and the Provincial Government was directly represented by Mr. A. H. B. Macgowan, M. P. F. Major Blaxter was supported by Aldermen James, Hoskin, and Cotter. The Rev. Dr. Fraser and Rev. A. Henry, Chief of Police McLennan, and Deputy Chief Melzac were also present.

The building was beautifully decorated. Over the exterior floated a huge Union Jack, while from the windows hung many smaller flags. The No. 1 Band was also present, and dispersed appropriate sacred music during the afternoon's programme, and Ensign Marshall rendered a solo entitled "From Sinking Lands He Lifted Me."

The opening address was given by Lieutenant Colonel Rees, who said that hundreds of men in Canada could look back to The Salvation Army's Industrial Department as having given them their first footing on the ladder to social regeneration and honest livelihood. Ensign Marshall had been sent out to Vancouver to take charge of the work here and

THE WAR CRY

"May God Bless The Work"

SAYS MAYOR OF VANCOUVER AT OPENING OF THE NEW INDUSTRIAL INSTITUTION—LIEUT. COLONELS REES AND TURNER PRESENT—PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT SENDS A SPECIAL REPRESENTATIVE—MEN'S SOCIAL WORK STARTED AT CALGARY—ARMY IMMIGRATION AND THE WEST.

and waste paper which were of no use to other people were here made into a respectable article, and he invited the people to help with their cast-off material.

Mr. A. H. B. Macgowan, M.P., as a special representative of Pro-

every success.

Mayor Blaxter, who three months ago left the corner-stone of the building, welcomed the institution as an important link in the machinery of justice. Too long had justice acted on the principle of the might

Front view of Toronto Industrial Department, Richmond Street, Toronto. This building was originally the Toronto I. Citadel.

mier Sir Richard McBride from the Provincial Government, spoke in highly congratulatory terms of what The Army had accomplished, and drew attention to the fact that some of the Government's most important appointments had been made from the ranks of The Army.

Owing to the opening of the

of the law instead of the mercy of the law; and he was glad to see this extension of the department for social and spiritual reformation brought into existence. It cost the city fifty cents every day for the keep of every one of its prisoners, and it would be a saving to the city from a monetary standpoint to utilize only those articles which could not be obtained in British Columbia being purchased elsewhere.

The new Metropole is a three-storey building. On the ground floor there are sitting and reading rooms, dining room, and kitchen. On the second floor is a dormitory, also a number of separate rooms. The third story is an exact duplicate of the second. The equipment is of a good grade, making the living portion of the institution of a very inviting and homelike character. There are baths on each floor, and inside each bed is a locker for the men's clothes.

The verandah extends to the rear from the rear of the main building. A portion of it is in two storeys, the upper containing Ensign Marshall's office and a large room which is to be utilized as a furniture repairing shop and a double line of bins totalling twenty-four into which classified articles of clothing, hats, shoes, etc., will be placed there.

On the ground floor the paper sorting and baling is carried on. A new baling machine on the latest pattern has been installed.

On Friday, the day after the opening, Colonel Rees and Colonel Turner, with Staff-Captain White and Ensign Marshall, went to Victoria to confer with Sir Richard McBride, the Premier of the Province, the Attorney-General (Hon. W. I. Bowser), and the Executive of the British Columbia Government. Both Colonel Rees and Colonel Turner were received very warmly by the Premier, who gave sympathetic attention to their proposals, and promised further support of The Army's work.

In the evening the Colonels, assisted by Staff-Captain White and Ensign, conducted a meeting at The Army Hall.

Saturday morning found the train (Continued on Page 15)

Officers (Captain Gerow and Lieutenant Froud) and comrades of the St. Mary's Corps, Ontario.

had had good results with the eighty men entrusted to him, in spite of the fact that there had been no proper accommodation for his work. The purpose of the institution was to make work and they had practically made work out of nothing. The old boots, old clothes, old furniture,

He, the Premier himself had been unable to be present. It was, Mr. Macgowan said, a grand thing to help raise the fallen. This The Army were doing every day, and with no loud proclaiming or advertising. He trusted that the new foundation now laid in Vancouver would meet with the this institution, as well as helping to save men from the braid of shame.

The city might be financially hard up, but he could assure them that when the estimates were prepared, the work of this branch of The Army's activities would be recog-

Band and Songsters of Port Maria, Jamaica. In front is seated the former Territorial Commander, Col. Midland, now Chief Secretary for Canada, with Brigadier Bouter.

HAPPY INTERRUPTION OF MERCY LEAGUE MEETING.

Yvonne Mac's Request and Concession Incident at Toronto
Camp—Winning Notes.

Monday, January 26th, the members of the League of Mercy in Toronto conducted a public meeting
in the Council Chamber of the

Mr. R. Witter, Mr. M. Steel,
Christmas "War Cry" Herald III.
Rev. Hamilton III.

Temple, under the presidency of Major Desbriay, the Women's Social Secretary. She was assisted by Major Brigadier Potter, the Sergeant-Major of the League, and Mrs. Marjory Findlay, who is Mrs. Potter's cousin.

About twenty-five Leaguers were present, and they provided a most interesting programme, consisting of united songs, solos, and short, pithy
addresses on the work of the League. A representative speaker
from each section of the hospital,
prison, old people's homes, etc.,
gave incidents and figures relative to the League's merciful mission during the last year, and Mrs. Major Findlay gave a Scripture address.
Mrs. Brigadier Potter also spoke,
and Major Desbriay, as head of the Women's Department of Army
Work, congratulated the members
upon their efforts, and gave them
assurances of continued interest in all their work.

About twenty minutes to nine,
when the meeting was in full swing,
a note was sent up to the platform
saying that a young man who was present wished to get saved before
he left the meeting—at nine o'clock.
The programme was stopped, and an invitation to the Mercy Seat
was given, and in a very few minutes the young man, who was kneeling
there, he obtained pardon, and afterwards gave a good testimony, afterwards leaving to keep his appointment. A happy interruption to such a meeting.

As an example of the work which the League of Mercy is doing, not only in Toronto, but all over the Dominion, it may be mentioned that one of the sisters is at present enjoying in her own home for the two

THE WAR CRY

in the Band room, the Temple Officers and Soldiers being responsible for the arrangements.

Major Desbriay has just received
an interesting account of the Winnipeg League of Mercy's recent work.
Her correspondent, writing for Sergeant-Major Mrs. Mackenzie says:

"On New Year's Eve the League
gave a very pleasant evening with the inmates of Grace Hospital. Recitations and solos by the members of the League, interspersed with modest talks from Mrs. Adjutant Mercy and Sister Mrs. Mitchell, took up the first part of the evening. Our Sergeant-Major, Mrs. Mackenzie, was unable to be present through illness, but sent New Year's greetings
to the girls and Officers of the hospital. Staff-Captain Payne and her staff were delighted with this 'surprise' party.

"At the close of the programme,
the League served refreshments to the girls, and a very enjoyable time
was brought to a close just in time
for Watchnight service.

"The League also visited the Industrial Home for Women at Kil-
down on January 6th, and gave a similar social evening. A programme was arranged, the girls of the Home
taking part. Two dialogues given by a few of the girls were very amusing, and well rendered. We were pleased to have with us Mrs.
Major McLean, Staff-Captain and Mrs. Sims, Staff-Captain and Mrs.

AURORA AND NEWMARKET

Visited by Sections of the Staff Band Band—Ministers and The
"War Cry."

Requests had been received from Newmarket and Aurora for visits from the Territorial Staff Band, but to conduct separate week-ends at these little towns was just now impossible. The only way of responding to the calls was, to decide, the Band, and this was done on January 21st and February 1st—with gratifying results.

At Newmarket, a large crowd intended to the playing of the Band on the streets on Saturday night, and afterwards followed the Band to the Town Hall, where "The Wondrous Cross" service was given.

On Sunday morning the Band led by Adjutant Hanagan, held a Holiness meeting in the Army Hall, the Adjutant giving the address. At the same hour Major Findlay occupied
the pulpit of the Methodist Church,
where there was a large attendance.

In the afternoon, before about four hundred persons, the Band gave a musical programme in the Town Hall, the Deputy Reeve, Mr. Hanagan, presiding. He spoke highly of the work of the Army, which he said was a great help to the churches,
and mentioned that he read "The War Cry" from cover to cover every week. The Band's playing was greatly enjoyed, and the singing and pianoforte solos of Adjutant Green captivated everybody.

WHEN GOD CALLS

Reply to "A Backslider's" Letter.
Writing in reply to the letter we
recently published from "A Back-
slider," Mrs. W. Clifford of Petro-
let, seeks to encourage our correspondent not to think too much of
seemingly to be in the way of
answering God's call. "At such
times (she says) one is apt to begin
planning his life, and he will surely
see things which seem to be hindrances. Perhaps it is ill-health, lack
of money, or something else. None
of us knows all about the future,
and it is best that we do not. When God called Abraham, the Scripture
says He went 'out not knowing
whither he went. When God told Moses he had something for him to
do, Moses began to think of possible obstacles in the way. He knew
very well what it would mean to
appear before Pharaoh to seek to persuade him to let the Israelites
go free.

"Such one has said the best way
to become a teacher is to teach.
Many teachers and preachers have
because they think more of a college
education than of that which is acquired through personal, heart-to-
heart work. Much earnest preaching is wasted because it is not practical or simple. Above all we must
not forget that Jesus is the teacher.
Backslider I would say. This day is as long as any other day in your life will be. To you, now
come duties, cares, and responsibilities, as truly as they will ever come.
Other lives are now touching yours.
Their destinies you are now influencing. God wants you to clasp His
hand and become a worker together
with Him in shaping their lives.

"It is true that some are called
from the East to the West, from
home to foreign lands, but there are
many places that sorely need to be filled. If you are willing to work,
you will be surprised at what He can
find for you to do, anywhere and
everywhere.

"It should make no difference to
you that there are plenty of others
to do the work, so long as it goes
undone. It is for you to do your part regardless of others. More
people work without pay than for
pay. Few give as much as they might, or enter as heartily into
their work as they ought. They are apt to give only such time as they
do not have opportunity to employ
in other ways, not enough to cost
them self-sacrifice. God does not
want fewer workers in His vineyard,
but He wants persons whose lives
are given wholly to Christ, persons
whose highest ambition is to do the
work close at hand until called by
Him to other fields.

"I pray that you will answer wisely and well to His loving call, and
that whether a sower or a gleaner,
you may be joyous work with God."

WHEN GOD CALLS

Reply to "A Backslider's" Letter.
Writing in reply to the letter we
recently published from "A Back-
slider," Mrs. W. Clifford of Petro-
let, seeks to encourage our correspondent not to think too much of
seemingly to be in the way of
answering God's call. "At such
times (she says) one is apt to begin
planning his life, and he will surely
see things which seem to be hindrances. Perhaps it is ill-health, lack
of money, or something else. None
of us knows all about the future,
and it is best that we do not. When
God called Abraham, the Scripture
says He went 'out not knowing
whither he went. When God told Moses he had something for him to
do, Moses began to think of possible obstacles in the way. He knew
very well what it would mean to
appear before Pharaoh to seek to
persuade him to let the Israelites
go free.

"Such one has said the best way
to become a teacher is to teach.
Many teachers and preachers have
because they think more of a college
education than of that which is acquired through personal, heart-to-
heart work. Much earnest preaching is wasted because it is not practical or simple. Above all we must
not forget that Jesus is the teacher.
Backslider I would say. This
day is as long as any other day in
your life will be. To you, now
come duties, cares, and responsibilities, as truly as they will ever come.
Other lives are now touching yours.
Their destinies you are now influencing. God wants you to clasp His
hand and become a worker together
with Him in shaping their lives.

"It is true that some are called
from the East to the West, from
home to foreign lands, but there are
many places that sorely need to be
filled. If you are willing to work,
you will be surprised at what He can
find for you to do, anywhere and
everywhere.

"It should make no difference to
you that there are plenty of others
to do the work, so long as it goes
undone. It is for you to do your
part regardless of others. More
people work without pay than for
pay. Few give as much as they
might, or enter as heartily into
their work as they ought. They are
apt to give only such time as they
do not have opportunity to employ
in other ways, not enough to cost
them self-sacrifice. God does not
want fewer workers in His vineyard,
but He wants persons whose lives
are given wholly to Christ, persons
whose highest ambition is to do the
work close at hand until called by
Him to other fields.

"I pray that you will answer wisely and well to His loving call, and
that whether a sower or a gleaner,
you may be joyous work with God."

LOVEST THOU ME MORE THAN THESE?

He that loveth father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me; and he that loveth son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after Me, is not worthy of Me.—Matt. 10:37, 38.

MONTELO, N. B.

Staff-Captain and Mrs. Coombs were here on January 24th, 25th, and 26th. On Saturday night, in spite of rain, a good crowd gathered in the Hall, and a man came voluntarily in the Mercy Seat, and gave himself to God. He returned on Sunday to testify to the change that had taken place.

Sunday's meetings (says W. G.)
were full of power and blessing. In the morning, sister, consecrated herself to God. The subject of the afternoon meeting was "Trophies of Grace," this was most interesting.
At night, the newly-formed Singing Brigade, under the leadership of the Hand that was wounded for me," Mrs.
Staff-Captain Coombs passed on the dying message of the late Captain Kinkade, this being the last Corps at which he was stationed. In the prayer meeting, a young girl found Jesus.

On Monday night, Mrs. Coombs spoke on "India." In spite of other attractions, we had a full house.
Several sisters were dressed in the Hindu costume and sang some choruses in the Hindu language, which

COLLINGWOOD.

A number of souls have recently been saved, and are taking their stand for God. Right reconsecra-tions recently took place. Cottage meetings have been started and are well attended. Our Singing Brigade's serendipitous effort brought in seventy-six dollars (says C. F. 31).

On January 24th, 25th, and 26th,
we had Brigadier Adhy with us. His meetings were well attended. On Sunday afternoon, new Colons
were presented to the Corps, and a number of comrades were enrolled.
A most interesting service. Between this and the night meeting the Brigade gave an address on "The Hand that was wounded for me." The Army's missionary work to about two hundred young men at the Empire Theatre, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

In the night meeting Bandmaster
A. Barnes and Candidate A. Milne
fellowed. Both comrades have been good soldiers, always at their posts, and they will be greatly missented. The Bandmaster's Godly life has been an example of good among the townspeople as well as in the Corps, and his willingness to play

THE LAST DAY WILL COME.

Don't rush your prayers. Don't shorten or omit them on the pretext
that duty calls you to do something task. The highest of all duties commands you to make ample provision for this daily communion with God.
There will always be distraction;
there will always be something to be done if you will, permit such things to stand between you and God.

Hour after hour is spent with our families, friends, and neighbors, but the time spent with God is, as a general rule, exceedingly brief. In the morning we are hurried, and in the evening we are fatigued. The one thing that can keep us close to God, that can keep alive the fear of sin, the only thing that can proce-ure for us the supernatural light whereby we discern the true from the false in spiritual matters, is hurried slurred over, and got through mechanically.

One day the sun will rise on our last day of life. We shall pray then as we never prayed before. We shall then be willing to give worlds for another week, another year, in which to make up for lost time that could never be recovered. The world
hinders us, the flesh draws us away
from God, the devil always furnishes us with a pretext for neglect of those all-important duties—prayer
and the love and service of God.

"OH, TO BE AT THE FRONT!"

To the Editor, "The War Cry."
Oh! all the things honourably covered it is the gift or ability to be an interesting and attractive
writer, of course, for God's cause.
I abhor stereotyped lingo that fails
to "hit the nail," and only interests
the writer. Keeping out of the rut
is one of my hobby ideas.

My command of scientific literature is limited to the minimum, but oh, my blood boils when I think of what could be done for the Kingdom of the Blood and Fire if the person possessing the requisite education possessed also the fiery zeal
of St. Paul's Gospel!

It is too bad that old Father
Time don't let some of us turn the wheel of life back a cog or two, that we might improve on some of our weak spots.

If I try to scribble for the "Cry"
a little now and again, it seems so full of defects that I keep mulling
and mulling over trying to perfect it.

I am sorry I can't oblige you by apologizing for the job you are advertising, but I couldn't resist the idea of shouting at you, as it touched a tender spot.

Oh, to be in the Blood and Fire
at the front again! While I sin,
a good Samaritan fighting a battle
after in private life, away from the firing line, it is some satisfaction to know I am in the war; but,
the "good old days at the front!"
—J. F. S.

"YOU NEVER CAN TELL."

A reader of "The War Cry" from Sunderby, Alberta, writes to say she attended an Army meeting in Edmonton on January 11th, from which she received much help. She would like the Officers to know.

Every Corps Needs One.

Captain and Mrs. Wilson, of Rhodes, Alberta, writes to say she has been organized a "War Cry"
Brigade, which is spending service with the papers. Brother Trunks has been appointed Publication Secretary, and she has eight assistants.
On a recent night the Officers met
the Brigade over a cup of tea in the Hall, and plans for increasing the sales were brought forth.

Standing at back: Mrs. Witter, Mrs. Steel, Mrs. Hamilton III.
Raven; seated: Sister M. Hinton, Captain Simmons, Ensign Thompson, Slater Mrs. Wall, etc.

Tudge, and Adjutant and Mrs. Mercy. Mrs. McLean gave a short address, and Mrs. Mackenzie, who had happily recovered, gave the girls
a very helpful talk. Refreshments were served, and the meeting closed
with the happiest feelings in the hearts of Adjutant Andrews and his assistants, and every member of the League.

"Both institutions (writes another correspondent), also the Provincial Hall, are visited every week by the League.

"Much good is being accomplished
every week by four of the League
of Mercy members. Sisters Mrs.
Tubercular Hospital and Mrs. Nelson Sister Mrs. Towle visits the Northwest Hospital, where the Children's Hospital, where "War Cry's" and
the Army's work is distributed.
The Army's work is distributed.
"On Sunday morning
the Army's work is distributed.
The Army's work is distributed.
The Army's work is distributed.

At night, between two and three
hundred people formed the audience
in the Town Hall, and a most interesting service was conducted by
Major Findlay, assisted by the Band.
The ladies played a useful part in
the meeting, during which a young
man sought salvation.

Captain George Taylor is in charge
of the Corps.

Happiness was written on the
faces of the other members of the Band, as, with instruments, and
singing, they loaded the car, and
re-joined their comrades on the
see that they had had victory.
Saturday night's musical meeting
was fairly well attended. The Rev.
Mr. Allan presided, and spoke in a
very appropriate manner of the
work of Captain Will Martin, of
the Corps.

At night, between two and three
hundred people formed the audience
in the Town Hall, and a most in-
teresting service was conducted by
Major Findlay, assisted by the Band.
The ladies played a useful part in
the meeting, during which a young
man sought salvation.

Captain George Taylor is in charge
of the Corps.

Happiness was written on the
faces of the other members of the
Band, as, with instruments, and
singing, they loaded the car, and
re-joined their comrades on the
see that they had had victory.
Saturday night's musical meeting
was fairly well attended. The Rev.
Mr. Allan presided, and spoke in a
very appropriate manner of the
work of Captain Will Martin, of
the Corps.

At night, between two and three
hundred people formed the audience
in the Town Hall, and a most in-
teresting service was conducted by
Major Findlay, assisted by the Band.
The ladies played a useful part in
the meeting, during which a young
man sought salvation.

Captain George Taylor is in charge
of the Corps.

Happiness was written on the
faces of the other members of the
Band, as, with instruments, and
singing, they loaded the car, and
re-joined their comrades on the
see that they had had victory.
Saturday night's musical meeting
was fairly well attended. The Rev.
Mr. Allan presided, and spoke in a
very appropriate manner of the
work of Captain Will Martin, of
the Corps.

At night, between two and three
hundred people formed the audience
in the Town Hall, and a most in-
teresting service was conducted by
Major Findlay, assisted by the Band.
The ladies played a useful part in
the meeting, during which a young
man sought salvation.

Captain George Taylor is in charge
of the Corps.

Happiness was written on the
faces of the other members of the
Band, as, with instruments, and
singing, they loaded the car, and
re-joined their comrades on the
see that they had had victory.
Saturday night's musical meeting
was fairly well attended. The Rev.
Mr. Allan presided, and spoke in a
very appropriate manner of the
work of Captain Will Martin, of
the Corps.

At night, between two and three
hundred people formed the audience
in the Town Hall, and a most in-
teresting service was conducted by
Major Findlay, assisted by the Band.
The ladies played a useful part in
the meeting, during which a young
man sought salvation.

Captain George Taylor is in charge
of the Corps.

Happiness was written on the
faces of the other members of the
Band, as, with instruments, and
singing, they loaded the car, and
re-joined their comrades on the
see that they had had victory.
Saturday night's musical meeting
was fairly well attended. The Rev.
Mr. Allan presided, and spoke in a
very appropriate manner of the
work of Captain Will Martin, of
the Corps.

At night, between two and three
hundred people formed the audience
in the Town Hall, and a most in-
teresting service was conducted by
Major Findlay, assisted by the Band.
The ladies played a useful part in
the meeting, during which a young
man sought salvation.

Captain George Taylor is in charge
of the Corps.

Happiness was written on the
faces of the other members of the
Band, as, with instruments, and
singing, they loaded the car, and
re-joined their comrades on the
see that they had had victory.
Saturday night's musical meeting
was fairly well attended. The Rev.
Mr. Allan presided, and spoke in a
very appropriate manner of the
work of Captain Will Martin, of
the Corps.

General Order.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S ANNUAL. It has been decided that the above shall take place at every Corps throughout the Territory on Sunday and Monday, March 8th and 9th. On the Sunday afternoon the children will occupy the platform, and the meeting will be conducted entirely in their interests. On the Monday the Annual Festival is to be held.

SYDNEY MAIDMENT,
Chief Secretary.

THE WAR CRY

PRINTED FOR THE Salvation Army in Canada, Newfoundland, Bermuda and Alaska, by The Salvation Army Printing House, 10 Albert Street, Toronto.

BREAK THY BREAD TO THE HUNGRY.

Like the fabled man with his donkey, The Salvation Army would have great difficulty in pleasing everybody all the time, if it were ever to embark upon so foolish an enterprise. As it is, whatever The Army does, that is sure to be the wrong thing to some people. "For pity's sake," say one side, "feed the hungry and starving, and we won't forget to help the bill when our good ship comes in." (Alas! for the ships that never make harbour!) "Turn the lazy beggars out and make them work," say they at the other extreme. Between these divided opinions The Army has duty forced to act for itself. It has a duty to discharge. It is the servant of the people; the Salvationist is his brother's keeper; and whether the present gathering of out-of-work men in the larger cities is due to scarcity of employment, to the attraction of city life through the winter months, or to their expectation of charity—there it is, and something had to be done if honest and deserving men were not to starve.

It is generally felt that the difficulty is only temporary. There are indeed those who maintain that there is no more poverty in the cities now than ordinarily in the winter season. For these reasons the Army should be regarded only as a temporary expedient. Certainly The Army is a system which is a type of meals a day shelter without any glamour, was an ideal of all apostolic injunctions, and if in all the suffering the days of necessity the way is not far better than the side than to sit and so on.

provincial could be and compel to travel.

OFFICERS

TO BE

AND UNEM-

Colonel and Mrs. Maidment

CONDUCT SUNDAY'S MEETINGS AT LIPPINCOTT ST. CORPS (TORONTO)—NINE SEEKERS AT MERCY SEAT.

IN the last Sunday (February 1st) of the Winter Camp Meeting Campaign at Lippincott Street (Toronto) the meetings were conducted by Colonel and Mrs. Maidment, assisted by Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Chandler. Attendance was much above the average throughout the day, and the meetings of great help and blessing to the people. The Penitential results included a total of nine seekers.

In the morning meeting the Colonel gave a helpful and enlightening talk on the meaning of holiness and its practical outcome in everyday life. Two men and two women came forward to seek the Blessing, one wearing the uniform of a street car conductor.

Lieut.-Colonel Chandler led a testimony meeting in the afternoon, among those who spoke being one of the young women who had knelt at the Mercy Seat in the morning. She gave a glowing account of her great victory she had won. Mr. Harvey, manager of the Christie-Brown Biscuit Company, also spoke. Mrs. Maidment gave a stirring address, speaking of God as a Guide and a Friend who is interested in all the details of our lives.

During the prayer meeting, Sergeant-Major Beckett led to the Mercy Seat a young man who had knelt on the same spot only a few days previously. There was much rejoicing over his surrender and much earnest prayer was offered. That he might obtain what he sought. A little later Mrs. Maidment, who had been earnestly dealing with a young woman, triumphantly led her out to the front.

The Hall was fairly well filled at night, and the people manifested great interest in all that was done, following the addresses of Colonel and Mrs. Maidment with the closest attention. Mrs. Maidment's talk was a trumpet call to the sinner to awake from the sleep of sin and seek Christ.

Preceding the Colonel's address, Mrs. Colonel Chandler solemnly, her theme being the Judgment. The Colonel followed this with a powerful and reasoned address on the Justice of God in bringing all men before the Judgment Seat of Christ.

The first seeker to come to the Penitential form was a coloured woman, and Mrs. Maidment, manifesting a particular love for these worthy people, was instantly kneeling by her side.

Before the meeting closed two other souls sought the Saviour, and a triumphant march around the Hall. Adjutant Squarebriggs, the Commanding Officer, said he was delighted with the day's fight and its results. It was a splendid wind-up to the Campaign.

NO SUBSTITUTION!

Colonel Gaskin Speaks at Central Holiness Meeting.

Parliament Street Citadel was full to small on Friday night, January 30th, when the Field Secretary, Colonel Gaskin, gave the address at the Central Holiness meeting led by Brigadier Taylor. The Colonel's name as a teacher of holiness has travelled far, and the congregation was consequently representative of many cities.

Major Phillips and the men Cadets Octet having taken part in the meeting, Colonel Gaskin read a portion of the end of chapter of Matthew, his address being based upon the words of Jesus to the criticising Pharisees:—"Render therefore unto Caesar as Caesar's; and unto God the things which are God's."

The meaning, purpose, and relationship of sacrifice and service were dealt with in the light of this and the few preceding verses. This was a surety that one could not be substituted for the other. It was asked for service, no amount of sacrifice, nor any additional work in places other than those to which God called, could be accepted by God in its stead. True service implied sacrifice; and the truest sacrifice was offered by those who serve.

The Colonel spoke of things which were better than sacrifice—justice, mercy, and obedience, and made clear to those seeking the way of holiness that compliance with God's will was the primary requisite before the blessing could come. No amount of "marveling . . . and going their way" (as Matthew says) could bring the true and happy life at that enjoyed by those who have given God those things which are rightfully His.

At the close of the meeting, two persons gave themselves fully to God at the Penitential form.

THE Commander's Illness

HAD A RELAPSE, BUT IS NOW RECOVERING.

We regret to have to say that Commander Miss Booth, who, it was thought, was well on the way to recovery after her recent illness, has suffered a relapse, her condition having at one time caused considerable anxiety. Latest news from New York, however, is to the effect that the bronchial trouble and tonsillitis from which the Commander is suffering are much reduced, although the patient is still very weak. It is, the Chief Secretary informs us, fully anticipated that her recovery will now continue without further interruption.

A message of sympathy has been sent from Territorial Headquarters to the Commander, and we are sure our comrades will remember her in their prayers.

There is, we understand, every reason to believe that the Commander will be well able to fulfil her Toronto appointment on Tuesday, March 10th.

Music and The I.C.C.

The International Congress, to be held in London next June, will, in addition to its many other attractive features, provide the best thing to date in the way of Army music. Between two and three thousand Bandsmen and songsters will take part in the monster festival at the Crystal Palace on Tuesday, June 24th. There is also to be a great International Musical Festival at the Crystal Palace on Thursday evening, June 18th. Bands will be present from various European countries as well as from the U.S. and Canada.

Territorial Newslets

Headquarters, T.

The Commissioner is, we learn, maintaining his health, and is now resting in a health resort with every prospect of being ready at the usual time on his visit to England.

On February 16th, the sinner hopes to be present at a well-gathered meeting with the Officers and Headquarters staff and City Corps, and on the 18th, at a similar meeting with the Montreal Officers. Following a final gathering at Halifax, he will sail, Thursday, the 21st, by the "Empress of Britain." Our readers will, we assure, continue to pray for the complete recovery of the Commissioner, also for Mr. Fraser, whose strength has hitherto been subjected to great strain.

Colonel Gaskin, Field Secretary, addressed a large gathering of men at the Victoria Hall, Toronto, on Sunday, February 1st, on the subject of "Wrecks and Rescues." His account of the part played by the Army in the work of human redemption made a great impression.

Lieut.-Col. Turner conducted his meetings at Ottawa, I. on Sunday, February 1st, including the District Sunday gathering with the Young People, fifteen of whom sought salvation.

"The War Cry" deeply regrets to learn that Mrs. Brigadier Rawlinson of Montreal, is suffering with erysipelas, and has had to enter hospital. The Brigadier, we are sure, will have the sympathies and prayers of all comrades.

Staff-Captain Sophie Dobson, whose appointment to this Territory was announced last week, has arrived in Toronto, and on Wednesday had an interview with the Chief Secretary at Headquarters.

Adjutant Stitt recently visited Halesbury and North Bay, and on February 4th, inspected properties at Chatham and Ingersoll, Ont.

Finsign Elias Owen, sailed from England for Canada on Saturday, January 31st, according to information received at the Immigration Department.

Captain Annie McLean has been transferred from the Montreal, to the London Rescue Home staff. Lieutenant Edith Cornell is appointed to assist Captain Miller at Camp.

Mrs. Major McGillivray, we are happy to learn, is still making good progress towards recovery from her recent illness—Major and Mrs. Morris have been much pleased to hear that their only daughter, who is now improving, has been able to visit them over the winter.

The meals are served in two and sometimes three shifts. As soon as the first detachment have finished, they hand in their bowls to the washer-up and get out in order to make room for the hungry crowd waiting on the stairs and in the main hall above. The rule of first come, first served, is strictly enforced, a policeman with his "Plenty of room at the top," being on duty at the door, who sees that late-comers take their place at the end of the line and do not squeeze in ahead of the early birds.

How severely some of the poor fellows are feeling the pinch of want was shown one day when a policeman brought in a Polish labourer whom he had found lying fainting condition through lack of food lean-

The Bread and Soup Line.

WHAT THE SALVATION ARMY IS DOING FOR UNEMPLOYED AND HOMELESS MEN AND POOR FAMILIES IN VARIOUS CITIES OF CANADA.

ing against a wall. The famished man was given a bowl of soup and several hunks of bread, which he eagerly devoured. He now regularly takes his place in the line grateful for the help afforded him in his extremity.

A young man, who was taken off the streets, had not broken his fast for three days, and he declared he would starve rather than let his few days old, who had been turned out of their lodgings because they could not pay the rent. Driven from their only refuge in the depth of winter, with no money, no work, and scarcely any clothes, they were indeed in a desperate plight. They were cared for by The Army till work was found for the man.

How truly the poor help the poor was shown in the arrival at Terri-

coats, and still others, expressed desires for work and food.

The lady's heart was touched as she looked upon the men and heard them tell their needs, and before she left the Major's office, she wrote out a check for twenty dollars, which she desired should be spent upon the men. "And I must send you some more," she added as she said good-bye.

Since the beginning of the winter season, but quite independent of the usual Christmas relief effort and the work done by the Men's Social Department, The Army in Toronto has spent nearly three hundred dollars in special relief work.

From other cities come similar

(1) Toronto Hunger Line. (2) Jubilee Hall—a temporary shelter. (3) Soup, bread, and coffee. (4) Steaming hot.

people in Montreal know of his plight. He is a well-dressed young fellow come in from the North.

Another man, fifty-five years of age, had never accepted charity in his life, and only the direct necessity compelled him to seek food and shelter from The Army.

On January 19th the Hall was thrown open as a sleeping place for homeless men, and on the first night 110 availed themselves of the opportunity to secure a night's lodging, though the only possible accommodation was a bed on the bare floor.

The parcel contained a number of baby's garments, the dearest treasures, perhaps, of a mother's heart. And yet she sent them to The Army.

Some other lady, "Brave mother!" an incident of another kind occurred just before the Soup Kitchen was started in the Temple. A lady wishing to do something to alleviate the sorrows of the workless and hungry, called Mrs. Major Fraser over the telephone. Mrs. Fraser at once advised the lady to see the Major, and next day the lady went down to Headquarters to his office.

poor families. During January 260 baskets of provisions were distributed to those in dire need, and 150 pieces of clothing were given away. Some very heart-rending cases have been investigated by our officers. One poor woman having four small children, and daily expecting another, was found to be without food or provisions. Her husband was sick in the Hospital. Another pathetic case was that of a man and his wife and a baby just a stories of distress and relief. The Hamilton "Spectator" says—

"That a large share of the work of tending to the needs of Hamilton is done by The Salvation Army, is evidenced by the number who, unable to provide for themselves, have been treated to free dinners at the Metropole. One hundred and thirteen uniformed men were cared for by the staff engaged at the Metropole under the supervision of Adjutant Sheard. Fifty of them being accommodated free of charge, while sixty-two received dinners without cost."

Adjutant Sheard telephoned to Lieut.-Colonel Fraser on Friday that the City Council had secured an old church as a temporary lodging-place for homeless and out-of-work men, and requested that The Army take charge of it, the city paying the rent and cost of fixtures.

The Adjutant has also announced through the paper that one thousand women's coats would be distributed from the Metropole free of charge to any woman who was in need.

From a report in the Saskatchewan "Star" we gather that a dinner was given to the unemployed of that city on New Year's Day by Esau Bourne and the local Socialists.

Relief efforts are being carried on by our comrades in other cities, but details are lacking.

THIEF CONFESSES.

To Police, After Hearing Gospel in Army Hall.

Under the heading, "The Bible Did It," the Toronto "Daily Star" of February 2nd has a telegraphic despatch from Hartford, Conn., U.S.A., which says:—

Touched by the reading of the fifty-first Psalm, Louis Gaucher walked from The Salvation Army Hall, and gave himself up to the police, saying he was wanted for four robberies in Hartford, Mass."

Liegar St. (Toronto).

Adjutant and Mrs. Hoddinott led the meetings on Sunday, January 25th, and a night seven persons knelt at the Cross seeking salvation (says B.). On the previous Sunday, the commissioning of Brother Perrett had been made Publication Secretary.

others underclothing, some over-

Fighting Thirty Years

(Continued from Page 6.)
drew a crowded house, including

[illegible]

Major Morris on The Work in India. The Missions of the Methodist Church, who pleasing duets, and the took part. The back-end, Mrs. (formerly Captain) who, years ago opened the Corps, old and new friends with the Missions of Army warfare. Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Morris assisted in all the meetings, which eminently successful.

January 24th and 25th, Brigadier General paid us a visit. On Sunday night, a courier came for the blessing of a clergyman. The Brigadier spoke prayer on Holiness, and gave some interesting illustrations on the subject.

On Monday, January 26th, we had a splendid Sunday. In the morning, the Brigadier's address on having a perfect heart. As (says J. A. W.) he spoke of holy people, who were often called out: "Leave us alone." On Tuesday night, at the Soldiers' meeting, the Brigadier spoke on the same subject.

the Christmas season, the band and some visited the Provincial Jail, and provided the inmates with an interesting programme of music and song.

Other places in the city were visited and much cheer and blessing dispensed among the poor and needy.

The Salvation Army Band (writes Captain Haley) consists of eight players. "We were engaged for four hours on Christmas Eve and received one hundred and twenty-five dollars."

FOR THE TWILIGHT HOUR

Our Letter to Women Readers.

My Dear Comrades—Cheerfulness! That was the topic I promised to write about this week. We very much want this letter to be a real blessing. Not only to the clever people, but also to those who through misfortune may not have had a perfect education; and to the young girls. We want all to read our letter—your letter—with profit.

Therefore, if some of our very bright and cultured readers think that we talk in a very simple way; about very ordinary subjects; please just remember that sometimes the most profound thoughts may be clothed in the humblest language; and that an article or an address need not be full of long, high-sounding words to be both clever and helpful to those who read and listen.

Perhaps you don't think there is much in this subject of cheerfulness. Some one said to me once, "You always say you have a good time," "I always do have a good time," was my answer.

"Oh, how is it?" was the somewhat peevish question. "Simply, I suppose," was my reply, "because I take it with me and I think I have as much right to try to make a good time for other people as they have to make it for me."

Now, dear sisters, I think there was sound philosophy in that way of putting it, didn't you? I thought the following illustration very suggestive on this line:

"Going on in nothing with some friends, a young lady before starting in her room, but a spray of sweet eglantine in her bosom. She quite forgot its presence. But all day long she was getting the delicious odour of the sweet briar, and wondered where it was."

"So in all your life. The good time is in you. It is with you as when you walk in clear light or in darkness so dense one could hardly see ten feet in front of us."

"Were we to come all that distance only to have to turn back without doing anything? But no. Some kind friend appeared carrying a lantern, and so we pitched in."

"What a picture it was! Portentous lanterns trying to play by the light of one oil lantern on the side of the ring, the dark outlines of their other comrades on the other side, and a thick mass surrounding us, which we knew the friends who had gathered to hear. Sweet darkness cannot, however, spiritual light, and when some friend came along with a number of torches we were going at it as hard as if it were midday."

Finally, with colours flying and banners waving, the Band played, and we marched away to the Methodist Church, where a number of lamps were lighted to substitute the electric bulbs. Here, a real warm and happy meeting was held and enjoyed by all. Captain Cook's was very appropriate as it was on the words, "I am the Light of the World."

Then eleven o'clock the Band came and the cry was raised, "Here are the sleighs!" they finished with "God be with you till we meet again." And, shaking with "Parting Partners," they were off. And, as they were on both sides away we went.

My Dear Comrades—Cheerfulness! That was the topic I promised to write about this week. We very much want this letter to be a real blessing. Not only to the clever people, but also to those who through misfortune may not have had a perfect education; and to the young girls. We want all to read our letter—your letter—with profit.

Therefore, if some of our very bright and cultured readers think that we talk in a very simple way; about very ordinary subjects; please just remember that sometimes the most profound thoughts may be clothed in the humblest language; and that an article or an address need not be full of long, high-sounding words to be both clever and helpful to those who read and listen.

Perhaps you don't think there is much in this subject of cheerfulness. Some one said to me once, "You always say you have a good time," "I always do have a good time," was my answer.

"Oh, how is it?" was the somewhat peevish question. "Simply, I suppose," was my reply, "because I take it with me and I think I have as much right to try to make a good time for other people as they have to make it for me."

Now, dear sisters, I think there was sound philosophy in that way of putting it, didn't you? I thought the following illustration very suggestive on this line:

"Going on in nothing with some friends, a young lady before starting in her room, but a spray of sweet eglantine in her bosom. She quite forgot its presence. But all day long she was getting the delicious odour of the sweet briar, and wondered where it was."

"So in all your life. The good time is in you. It is with you as when you walk in clear light or in darkness so dense one could hardly see ten feet in front of us."

"Were we to come all that distance only to have to turn back without doing anything? But no. Some kind friend appeared carrying a lantern, and so we pitched in."

"What a picture it was! Portentous lanterns trying to play by the light of one oil lantern on the side of the ring, the dark outlines of their other comrades on the other side, and a thick mass surrounding us, which we knew the friends who had gathered to hear. Sweet darkness cannot, however, spiritual light, and when some friend came along with a number of torches we were going at it as hard as if it were midday."

Finally, with colours flying and banners waving, the Band played, and we marched away to the Methodist Church, where a number of lamps were lighted to substitute the electric bulbs. Here, a real warm and happy meeting was held and enjoyed by all. Captain Cook's was very appropriate as it was on the words, "I am the Light of the World."

Then eleven o'clock the Band came and the cry was raised, "Here are the sleighs!" they finished with "God be with you till we meet again." And, shaking with "Parting Partners," they were off. And, as they were on both sides away we went.

My Dear Comrades—Cheerfulness! That was the topic I promised to write about this week. We very much want this letter to be a real blessing. Not only to the clever people, but also to those who through misfortune may not have had a perfect education; and to the young girls. We want all to read our letter—your letter—with profit.

Therefore, if some of our very bright and cultured readers think that we talk in a very simple way; about very ordinary subjects; please just remember that sometimes the most profound thoughts may be clothed in the humblest language; and that an article or an address need not be full of long, high-sounding words to be both clever and helpful to those who read and listen.

Perhaps you don't think there is much in this subject of cheerfulness. Some one said to me once, "You always say you have a good time," "I always do have a good time," was my answer.

"Oh, how is it?" was the somewhat peevish question. "Simply, I suppose," was my reply, "because I take it with me and I think I have as much right to try to make a good time for other people as they have to make it for me."

Now, dear sisters, I think there was sound philosophy in that way of putting it, didn't you? I thought the following illustration very suggestive on this line:

"Going on in nothing with some friends, a young lady before starting in her room, but a spray of sweet eglantine in her bosom. She quite forgot its presence. But all day long she was getting the delicious odour of the sweet briar, and wondered where it was."

"So in all your life. The good time is in you. It is with you as when you walk in clear light or in darkness so dense one could hardly see ten feet in front of us."

"Were we to come all that distance only to have to turn back without doing anything? But no. Some kind friend appeared carrying a lantern, and so we pitched in."

"What a picture it was! Portentous lanterns trying to play by the light of one oil lantern on the side of the ring, the dark outlines of their other comrades on the other side, and a thick mass surrounding us, which we knew the friends who had gathered to hear. Sweet darkness cannot, however, spiritual light, and when some friend came along with a number of torches we were going at it as hard as if it were midday."

Finally, with colours flying and banners waving, the Band played, and we marched away to the Methodist Church, where a number of lamps were lighted to substitute the electric bulbs. Here, a real warm and happy meeting was held and enjoyed by all. Captain Cook's was very appropriate as it was on the words, "I am the Light of the World."

Then eleven o'clock the Band came and the cry was raised, "Here are the sleighs!" they finished with "God be with you till we meet again." And, shaking with "Parting Partners," they were off. And, as they were on both sides away we went.

My Dear Comrades—Cheerfulness! That was the topic I promised to write about this week. We very much want this letter to be a real blessing. Not only to the clever people, but also to those who through misfortune may not have had a perfect education; and to the young girls. We want all to read our letter—your letter—with profit.

Therefore, if some of our very bright and cultured readers think that we talk in a very simple way; about very ordinary subjects; please just remember that sometimes the most profound thoughts may be clothed in the humblest language; and that an article or an address need not be full of long, high-sounding words to be both clever and helpful to those who read and listen.

Perhaps you don't think there is much in this subject of cheerfulness. Some one said to me once, "You always say you have a good time," "I always do have a good time," was my answer.

"Oh, how is it?" was the somewhat peevish question. "Simply, I suppose," was my reply, "because I take it with me and I think I have as much right to try to make a good time for other people as they have to make it for me."

Now, dear sisters, I think there was sound philosophy in that way of putting it, didn't you? I thought the following illustration very suggestive on this line:

"Going on in nothing with some friends, a young lady before starting in her room, but a spray of sweet eglantine in her bosom. She quite forgot its presence. But all day long she was getting the delicious odour of the sweet briar, and wondered where it was."

"So in all your life. The good time is in you. It is with you as when you walk in clear light or in darkness so dense one could hardly see ten feet in front of us."

"Were we to come all that distance only to have to turn back without doing anything? But no. Some kind friend appeared carrying a lantern, and so we pitched in."

"What a picture it was! Portentous lanterns trying to play by the light of one oil lantern on the side of the ring, the dark outlines of their other comrades on the other side, and a thick mass surrounding us, which we knew the friends who had gathered to hear. Sweet darkness cannot, however, spiritual light, and when some friend came along with a number of torches we were going at it as hard as if it were midday."

Finally, with colours flying and banners waving, the Band played, and we marched away to the Methodist Church, where a number of lamps were lighted to substitute the electric bulbs. Here, a real warm and happy meeting was held and enjoyed by all. Captain Cook's was very appropriate as it was on the words, "I am the Light of the World."

Then eleven o'clock the Band came and the cry was raised, "Here are the sleighs!" they finished with "God be with you till we meet again." And, shaking with "Parting Partners," they were off. And, as they were on both sides away we went.

THE WAR CRY

Current Events.

in the rush of waters that followed the sinking of the ship. Wireless-Operator Keuka displayed great heroism. He had snapped off the S.O.S. call and was preparing to plunge overboard when he caught sight of a woman without a life preserver. He at once took his off and fastened it round the woman. A minute later the ship went down carrying Keuka with it. The woman was saved. America may well be proud of her merchant sailors.

Railway Facts and Figures. There are now 20,304 miles of railway in Canada, according to recently issued statistics, 2,276 of these miles were added during the year ending June 30th last. Ontario leads, with 9,000 miles; Saskatchewan is second, with 4,631; Manitoba is third, with 3,092, and Quebec fourth, with 3,356. At the end of the year 18,547 miles were under construction.

Tower of Sileam Found. It is reported that the foundations of the Tower of Sileam have been discovered in Jerusalem. This was the tower concerning which Jesus is quoted in Luke 13:4 as saying: "Those eighteen upon whom the tower in Siloam fell and slew, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwell in Jerusalem?" The excavators have found the base of a circular tower which may well be that of the Tower of Sileam. They have found also a conduit leading from the spring.

Humanity or Animals? An Austrian land-owner, who was passionately attached to horses, died recently and bequeathed his culture to his horses.

hills made by the latest process, will announce their denunciation in plain words and in the language of the country in which they are issued. To make the notes "talk" they have to be put in specially constructed gramophone. Such bank notes are not yet in circulation, but it seems safe to predict that they will be before many years.

Temperance Forces Win. The result of the vote on the Canadian Temperance Act in Peel and Huron has been a sweeping victory for the temperance party. The majority for the Act in Huron County was nearly three thousand. When the result became known, nearly all the churches in the town of Godrich began ringing bells.

Spoken of the victory. The Secretary of the Dominion Alliance says: "It is another step in the steady progress towards prohibition, and indicates the strong temperance sentiment in the Province. Another one has been added to the many notices the liquor men have received to quit."

Tweed, Ont. We had a good week-end (January 24th and 25th). One soul sought salvation. We have welcomed Lieutenant Chambers, to help Captain G. Beckett in the Corps.

SUBSCRIPTION MATES. See "The War Cry"—To territory west of Port William, to Newfoundland, New Brunswick, and the United States, and all other countries in the world, $2.00 per annum. For "The Young Soldier"—Through Canada, New Zealand, the British Isles, the United States, and other countries in the world, $1.00 per annum. For "The Young Soldier"—Through Canada, New Zealand, the British Isles, the United States, and other countries in the world, $1.00 per annum.

Seasonable Suggestions.

- Soldiers' Guides, 35c, 50c, 75c
- General's Photo Calendar, 50c
- Songster Regulation Harps ..... 15c
- Songster Lyre Pins ..... 10c
- S. A. Monogram Pins ..... 10c
- "Twice-Born Men" cloth-bound, Postpaid ..... 60c
- Field Officers' Caps, 65c to 75c
- Bar Brooches ..... 40c
- Silver Badge ..... 50c
- White Metal Badge ..... 45c
- "Life of General Booth" by Commissioner Ralston. Postpaid ..... 85c
- Scripture Post Cards, by H. Copping, packet, postpaid, 20c

HOLMAN'S TEACHERS' BIBLE, 4,000 answers and questions, a beautiful gift. Sale price ..... $1.75 Postpaid ..... $1.85

- Reliance Pen, self-filler, $2.50
- Private's Caps, sizes 6 1/2 to 7 1/4 ..... $2.00
- Cap Bands, Private's ..... 25c
- Staff ..... 35c
- Other Sheep" by Begbie, clothbound, postpaid ..... 60c
- Band Caps, 6 1/2 to 7 1/4 ..... $2.25
- Staff-Captain S's ..... 70c
- Adjutant S's ..... 60c
- Ensign S's ..... 50c
- Song Books, black cover, yapp edge ..... $1.00
- Morocco cover, yapp edge, 75c
- Ditto, small print, ..... 75c
- Song Books, small print, 50c

SPLENDID VARIETY OF SCRIPTURE TEXTS.

AGENT WANTED—Men or Women. Write for Particulars to TRADE SECRETARY.

JESSIE BELL.

THREE GIDEONS.

(Continued from Page 12.) "He began to shout, 'Shoot, God! Shoot, God!' and so much 'Shoo-shoo-ing' that I nearly dropped the gun for laughing; and when I could pull myself together I thought it had done some permanent injury to my shoulder."

(To be continued.)

When you have read this paper, please post it to a friend who would not be likely otherwise to see a copy.

COMMANDER
MISS EVA BOOTH

We have already said that his death was sudden; we now learn that while engaged with his work in the cemetery he suddenly collapsed and expired.

Tickets can be obtained from the Finance Office, 20 Albert Street, Toronto.

right from your residence to London or third class, and on any line of steamers addressed to

LIEUT.-COLONEL TURNER
Toronto

Name of steamer.	Date of sailing.	Return Date.	Second Class, etc.
Albatross	May 1st	May 1st

ADJUTANT GREEN.
Temple, Wednesday, February 18.

LIEUT.-COLONEL TURNER,
Toronto, 20 Albert Street.

Name of steamer.	Date of sailing.	Return Fares.		Proposed return date of sailing.
		Second class.	Third class.
Albatron	May 21	$100.00	$67.50	†Calgarian July 17
Royal George	" 21	107.50	65.00	†Royal George " 18
Empress of Britain	" 28	107.50	65.00	†Empress of Britain " 18
Teutonic	" 30	110.00	85.00	†Meranti " 18
Andania	" 30	107.50	62.50	†Alania " 18

†Liverpool, †Bristol †Southampton.

INFORMATION URGENTLY WANTED

8471. THOMSON, ROBERT. Age 31.
height 5 ft. 9 in., brown hair, dark eyes, boilermaker; been living at cover some time and working on railroads. Friends making inquiries.

any news of the whereabouts of the above-named will be appreciated.
1968. DANNY

now he in Canada. See photo.
1855. JONES, ALFRED. Came to Canada nearly 70 years ago. Height 5 ft., fair complexion, light grey eyes; left England 1845. His brother, saying he had arrived early in Toronto. It appears he had a brother, who is now dead, in the press.

1883. SHAW, JOSEPH. Age 47
 5 ft. 6 in. dark complexion, height 5 ft. 6 in.
 or 5 ft. 7 in.; has two daughters named Carrie and Amy. Before leaving England was employed on the Manchester Corporation. In 1901 sailed from Liverpool to Canada. Address in England
 was ten houses off Greenisle Lane,
 Draylesden, near Manchester, England.
 1889 HILL 001

brown hair, dark brown eyes, wearing a gold ring on the fourth finger of the left hand. He is a native of Berlin, Germany, and has been in the United States since May 28, 1912. Please communicate with the above office.

SS71. FRANK, GEORGE REIGERT. Born July 7, 1881, in Bern, Switzerland; sculptor, medium height, brown hair, blue eyes; missing since July 21, 1912. Wife enquires.

COMRADES! CONSIDER WHAT THIS MEANS

To You.

AND OFFICIAL GAZETTE OF THE SALVATION ARMY IN CANADA AND NEWFOUNDLAND

National Headquarters: 101 Queen Victoria St., London, E.C.
 Territorial Headquarters: James and Albert Sts., Toronto.
 Year, No. 21. W. Bramwell Booth, General TORONTO, FEBRUARY 21, 1914. David M. Rees, Commissioner Price, Five Cents

On Parade--A Study in Values.